WATER VIEWS THE VIKINGS SAW

By Patricia Harris
GLOBE CORRESPONDENT

DOMBAS — “Look at the waterfall,” I called to my friends from my seat on the left-hand side of the Rauma Railway coach, one leg of our day-long journey northwest from Oslo into fiord country.

Patti laughed. “There are two over here,” she called back from her seat on the right. We were fast discovering that Norway has more than enough scenery — and waterfalls — for everyone. The journey aboard the Rauma Railway was a harbinger of sights to come.

We had come to see fiords, the narrow fin-
